FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Letter to the Ephesians reminds us that God has called us, in Christ, to be holy. We were sealed with the Holy Spirit to give praise and glory to God. St. Francis de Sales dedicated his life to helping people understand that all of us are called to holiness, whatever our way or state in life. Holiness simply means being united with God. Pope Francis preached about this during an audience on November 19, 2014. He observed that the call to holiness is not just for the saints by living in communion with the Lord and serving others.

Like Amos, the shepherd prophet, and the Twelve sent out two to fish for people, we have all that we need to be holy and share God's love. Our human experiences and our lives of faith have the power to invite others into a relationship with Jesus Christ that brings healing, lessens the power of evil, unleashes the power of God's love, and enables people to serve one another in Christ's name. By being who we are and being that well, we give glory to God and witness the unconditional, merciful love that Jesus came to offer us when he walked the earth. When we live in communion with the Lord and one another, we grow in holiness. Or, as we say at the end of Mass, we announce the gospel of the Lord and go in peace, glorifying the lord with our lives. Our lives pray in the words of Ephesians: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens."

Generous God, you have given me all that I need to grow in holiness. Open my eyes to the presence and power of your Holy Spirit within me. Free me to share your love in ways that invite others to know you, through your Son, Jesus Christ, and to discover the Spirit's presence within them.

Saint of the day

Saint Camillus de Lellis, Priest—Optional Memorial
JULY 14, 2024

Prayer: Saint Camillus de Lellis, you suffered as a young man from an addiction to gambling and lived a destitute life. God called you out of that darkness and you responded. Please pray for me, that the light of Christ will enter into my own darkness and sin, and from that place of suffering, transform me into a living saint, fully devoted to the service of God and others. Saint Camillus, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
